NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS

Estrada Hinojosa & Company, Inc. (the Company) is a municipal securities dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company is a Texas Corporation.

NOTE 2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash at its clearing correspondent broker dealer and in bank deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

Basis of Presentation

The Company is engaged in investment banking services which comprises several classes of services, including underwriting activities, financial advisory services, placement agent services, continuing disclosure submission services, and secondary market sales.

Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Accounts Receivable

Trade receivables are reported in the statement of financial condition at outstanding principal adjusted for any charge offs. An allowance for doubtful accounts is recognized by management based upon a review of specific customer balances, historical losses (bad debts) incurred and general economic conditions. As of December 31, 2017, the Company had no accounts that management believed were doubtful of being collected.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation on property and equipment is provided in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of the assets to operations over their estimated service lives of seven years using the straight-line method.

Major repairs or replacements which increase the useful lives of property and equipment are capitalized. Maintenance repairs and minor replacements are charged to operations as incurred. Property and equipment retirements are removed from the records at their cost and related accumulated depreciation and any resulting gain or loss is included in operations.

Other assets

Other assets include the purchase price of seat licenses for a professional sports team. The licenses are being amortized over a period of thirty years.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues from the Company's investment banking operations include fees for financial advisory services and underwriting activities and gains and losses on secondary market sales.

Financial advisory fees are recorded on the date of closing. In addition, the Company occasionally acts as a co-financial advisor in which a joint financial advisory relationship exists between the Company and a municipality, as well as between another financial advisor and the municipality to provide financial advisory services. Co-financial advisor fees are recorded when earned.

Underwriting fees, including management fees and fees for group or designated orders in connection with a specific bond issue, are recorded on the date of closing, net of syndicate expenses arising from a bond issuance in which the Company participates as a syndicate member. In the instance where the Company is the designated senior-managing underwriter, underwriting fees in connection with a specific bond issue are recorded on the trade date. In the normal course of business, the Company enters into underwriting commitments. Transactions related to such underwriting commitments that were open at December 31, 2017, and were subsequently settled, had no material effect on the financial statements as of that date.

Secondary market sales of municipal securities held arising from unsold balances in connection with a specific bond issue, including gains and losses resulting from such transactions, are recorded on the trade date.

Fees for placement agent services and continuing disclosure submission services are recorded when earned.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due plus deferred taxes related primarily to temporary or permanent differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities, if any, represent the future tax return consequences of those differences, which will be taxable or deductible when the assets and liabilities are recovered or settled. The measurement of deferred tax assets is reduced by a valuation allowance if, based on available evidence, it is more likely than not that some or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Management fully expects to utilize the deferred tax assets recorded and no allowance has been reflected in the financial statements.

Changes in future tax rates are recognized upon enactment of the new rates and are recorded as a component of income tax expense. As a result of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, the Company has adjusted its deferred tax assets and liabilities to reflect future rates.

The Company recognizes and measures any unrecognized tax benefits in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 740, "Income Taxes". Under that guidance the Company assesses the likelihood, based on their technical merit, that tax positions will be sustained upon examination based on the facts, circumstances and information available at the end of each period.

The measurement of unrecognized tax benefits is adjusted when new information is available, or when an event occurs that requires a change.

As of December 31, 2017, the Company, using that guidance, has no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

Statement of Cash Flows

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company has defined cash equivalents as highly liquid investments, with original maturities of less than three months that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business.

NOTE 3. FAIR VALUE

Fair Value Measurement

Investments are recorded at fair value and investment transactions are recorded on the trade date. FASB ASC 820 "Fair Value Measurement", defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and establishes a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach, as specified by FASB ASC 820, are used to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

Level 1 inputs: inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities the Company have the ability to access.

Level 2 inputs: inputs that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly, including quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets in markets that are not active, and other observable inputs other than quoted market prices included within level 1.

Level 3 inputs: are significant unobservable inputs for the asset or liability and rely on management's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset.

At December 31, 2017, the Company's investments consist of certificates of deposit with original maturities greater than 90 days valued at $1,815,330. Broker pricing is used for valuation of certificates of deposit, and is based on pricing of similar assets. For the year ended December 31, 2017, unrealized losses were $118 and are included in interest and other income in the statement of income.

The following table presents the Company's fair value hierarchy for those assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2017.

Exemptive Provisions Regarding Rule 15c3-3 Under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors Estrada Hinojosa & Company, Inc.

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Estrada Hinojosa & Company, Inc Exemption Report, in which (1) Estrada Hinojosa & Company, Inc. (the Company) identified the following provision of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3: (k)(2)(ii) (the "exemption provision") and (2) the Company stated that the Company met the identified exemption provision throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception (2017). The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provision and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provision. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Board of Directors Estrada Hinojosa & Company, Inc. 1717 Main Street, Suite 4760 Dallas, Texas 75201

Dear Mr. Hinojosa:

We have substantially completed our audit of the financial statements of Estrada Hinojosa & Company, Inc. (the Company) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2017. Professional standards require that we advise you of the following matters relating to our audit.

Our Responsibility under Public Company Accounting Oversight Board Standards

As communicated in our engagement letter dated November 7, 2017, our responsibility, as described by professional standards, is to plan and perform our audit to form and express an opinion about whether the financial statements that have been prepared by management are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our audit of the financial statements does not relieve you or management of your respective responsibilities.

Our responsibility, as prescribed by professional standards, is to plan and perform our audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether caused by error or fraud. Accordingly, there is some risk that a material misstatement would remain undetected. Although not absolute assurance, reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance. Also, a financial statement audit is not designed to detect error or fraud that is immaterial to the financial statements. An audit of financial statements includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting sufficient to plan the audit and to determine the nature, timing, and extent of audit procedures to be performed. An audit of financial statements is not designed to provide assurance on internal control or to identify internal control deficiencies. Accordingly, as part of our audit, we considered the internal control of the Company solely for the purpose of determining our audit procedures and not to provide any assurance concerning such internal control.

We are also responsible for communicating significant matters related to the audit that are, in our professional judgment, relevant to your responsibilities in overseeing the financial reporting process. However, we are not required to design procedures for the purpose of identifying other matters to communicate to you.

Significant Issues with Regard to Appointment or Retention of the Auditor

In the normal course of our professional association with Estrada Hinojosa & Company, Inc., we generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, business conditions affecting the entity, and business plans and strategies that may affect the risks of material misstatement.

No significant issues were encountered in connection with our retention as the auditors of Estrada Hinojosa & Company, Inc.

No significant discussions were held regarding the application of accounting principles and auditing standards during the retention process.

Significant Risks Identified during Risk Assessment Procedures

The following significant risks were identified during the performance of our risk assessment procedures:

- Misappropriation of cash or securities which is an inherent risk in the industry due to the liquidity of the assets.
- Improper revenue recognition related to the amount and whether the revenue is recorded in accordance with customer contracts and agreements.
- Acceleration of expenses to reduce overall income tax liability.
- Error in booking of journal entries which could result in material misstatement of the financial statements.
- Misstatement of net capital, due to regulatory significance.

Significant Changes to Our Planned Audit Strategy or to the Significant Risks Originally Identified

No significant changes were made to our planned audit strategy or to the significant risks originally identified during the course of the audit.

Significant Accounting Policies and Practices, and Significant Unusual Transactions

Management has the responsibility to select and use appropriate accounting policies. A summary of the significant accounting policies adopted by the Company is included in Note 2 to the financial statements.

There have been no initial selection of accounting policies and no changes in significant accounting policies or their application during the year ended December 31, 2017. No matters have come to our attention that would require us, under professional standards, to inform you about (1) the methods used to account for significant unusual transactions and (2) the effect of significant accounting policies in controversial or emerging areas for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus.

Critical Accounting Policies and Practices

The following accounting policies and practices are considered critical:

Revenue recognition is considered a critical accounting policy based on the impact of revenue on the financial statements as well as the levels of capital needed for regulatory purposes.
Revenue is recognized when a service is provided for a fee. Based on the types of services and products offered by Estrada Hinojosa & Company, Inc., the recognition of revenue is not complex, however, there is a large volume of transactions that occur, which increases the risk of errors in revenue recognition. The accounting policy used by Estrada Hinojosa & Company, Inc.
is in accordance with current accounting guidance.

Critical Accounting Estimates

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's current judgments. Those judgments are normally based on knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements or their high degree of subjectivity, and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ markedly from management's current judgments.

The most sensitive accounting estimates affecting the financial statements are:

- Management's estimate of the allowance for doubtful accounts is based upon a review of specific customer balances, historical losses incurred and general economic conditions. At December 31, 2017 management determined that no allowance is required, which appears to be the low end of possible outcomes.
- Management's estimate of the fair value of employee stock compensation is based on book value per share of the Company's stock as of December 31, 2016.

We evaluated the key factors and assumptions used to develop these estimates and determined that they are reasonable in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Certain financial statement disclosures involve significant judgment and are particularly sensitive because of their significance to financial statement users. The most sensitive disclosures affecting Estrada Hinojosa & Company, Inc.'s financial statements relate to net capital requirements. These disclosures present information pertinent to your regulators.

Auditor's Evaluation of the Quality of the Entity's Financial Reporting

The primary responsibility for establishing an entity's accounting principles rests with management and includes not only the appropriateness of the accounting policies and practices, but also the quality of such policies, including the identification of critical accounting policies and practices, critical accounting estimates, and significant unusual transactions. Quality policies and practices include the consistency of the entity's accounting policies and their application, the clarity and completeness of the entity's financial statements and related disclosures, and items that could have a significant effect on the faithfulness, verifiability, and objectivity of the accounting information included in the financial statements. Pursuant to professional standards, our responsibility is to evaluate, assess, and communicate our conclusions of the quality of management's financial reporting to the audit committee.

Based on our evaluation, we have found the quality of management's disclosures about significant and critical accounting policies acceptable.

Based on our evaluation, we have found that management's financial statement presentation, including the form, arrangement, and content of the financial statements and the related disclosures are in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

We identified the following new accounting pronouncements applicable to the Company:

• In May 2014, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2014-09, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606)." The guidance in this ASU supersedes the revenue recognition requirements in Topic 605, "Revenue Recognition." Under the new guidance, an entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The amendments in ASU No. 2014-09 are effective for public business entities for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017. As a result, the requirements in this standard are applicable to regulatory filings in 2018 as well as the annual 2018 financial statements.

We did not identify any alternative accounting treatments permissible under U.S. GAAP for policies and practices related to material items that are applicable to the entity.

Other Information in Documents Containing Audited Financial Statements

Pursuant to professional standards, our responsibility as auditors for other information in documents containing Estrada Hinojosa & Company, Inc.'s audited financial statements does not extend beyond the financial information identified in the audit report, and we are not required to perform any procedures to corroborate such other information. However, in accordance with such standards, our procedures over the computation of net capital under Rule 15c3-1, which is included in the financial statements as supplementary information, included agreeing the amounts included in the computation to our audit workpapers, the underlying accounting records and the financial statements themselves. Our auditor's report will include an "in relation" opinion to this information stating that it is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Our responsibility also includes communicating to you any information which we believe is a material misstatement of fact. Nothing came to our attention that caused us to believe that such information, or its manner of presentation, is materially inconsistent with the information, or manner of its presentation, appearing in the financial statements.

Difficult or Contentious Matters for Which the Auditor Consulted

We encountered no difficult or contentious matters for which we consulted outside of the engagement team.

Management's Consultations with Other Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters. Management informed us that, and to our knowledge, there were no consultations with other accountants regarding auditing and accounting matters.

Going Concern

Pursuant to professional standards, we are required to communicate to you, when applicable, certain matters relating to our evaluation of the entity's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time, including the effects on the financial statements and the adequacy of the related disclosures, and the effects on the auditor's report. No such matters or conditions have come to attention during our audit engagement.

Uncorrected and Corrected Misstatements

For the purposes of this letter, professional standards require that we communicate to you all uncorrected misstatements related to accounts and disclosures, and discuss with you the basis for the determination that the uncorrected misstatements were immaterial, including the qualitative factors considered. Additionally, we are required to communicate to you the future-period impact of the current-period uncorrected misstatements on the financial statements. Uncorrected misstatements in the current year were isolated to the reversing impact of a prior year adjustment to increase income tax expense by $40,152 to correct for prior period overstatements of unrealized gain/loss on investments. The reversing impact of this adjustment had a $40,152 effect on current year net income (increase) and opening retained earnings (decrease).

In addition, we are required to communicate misstatements, other than those determined to be clearly trivial, related to accounts and disclosures identified during the audit engagement that have been corrected by management. Any such audit adjustments, in our judgment, may not have been detected except through the performance of auditing procedures. An audit adjustment may or may not indicate matters that could have a significant effect on the entity's financial reporting process (that is, could potentially cause future financial statements to be materially misstated). There were no audit adjustments identified in the process of conducting our audit procedures. In our judgment, none of the adjustments we proposed, whether recorded or not by the entity, either individually or in the aggregate, indicate matters that could have a significant effect on the entity's financial reporting process.

Material Written Communications

We have had no other material written communications with management.

Departure from the Auditor's Standard Report

We do not expect to issue a modified opinion or an opinion that includes explanatory language in the auditor's report.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, disagreements with management involve matters, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, concerning a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, which could be significant to Estrada Hinojosa & Company, Inc.'s financial statements or the auditor's report. No such disagreements arose during the course of the audit.

Significant Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management relating to the performance of the audit.

Other Matters

In accordance with Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Ethics and Independence Rules and Standards (Rule 3526, Communication with Audit Committees Concerning Independence), we are required to disclose to you, at least annually and in writing, all relationships between our firm and any affiliates and Estrada Hinojosa & Company, Inc. and its related entities or persons in financial reporting oversight roles at the Company that may reasonably be thought to impair our independence, prior to continuing our engagement as your company's auditor.
